HAYES, WILLIAM H.
Was born in Boston, June 21st, 1848. His mother removed to Lowell in 1849, his father going to California, where he died. When eight years old removed to Groton, going on a farm at eleven, and to school only in the winter. When only thirteen enlisted in Company B, Sixth Regiment, under call for one hundred days men, but returned, as called was changed.

In August, 1862, enlisted in Company B, Sixth Regiment, and served in Peck’s Division, Seventh Army Corps, in Suffolk and Norfolk, Va. Here gained the nickname of “Old Hundred,” he was so young and small, being one of the very youngest soldiers who carried a gun.

Mr. Hayes comes of fighting stock. His grandfather was a Mexican War, his great-grandfather on his mother’s side was at battle of Blanlark Hill, while his great-great-grandfather was Captain Oliver Parker, in same fight. The mother of Captain Oliver Parker did her part also in the struggle against the Indians of those days, of whom she is said to have killed three who attacked her house in the absence of its male defenders.

Re-enlisted in November, 1863, in Company B, of the Fifty-sixth Regiment, and served all through Grant’s campaign; mustered out July, 1865. President of Association of Survivors of Company B, Sixth Regiment; also of Association of Survivors of Fifty-sixth Regiment.
