

The Friends of the UMass Lowell Libraries support and promote special projects that encourage and enhance the use of the University of Massachusetts Lowell Libraries. The Friends sponsor cultural and intellectual events of interest not only the University community but to community at large. Such activities may include, but are not limited to, a speaker series hosted by the Libraries, an annual authors' night, and an annual book sale.

Membership in the Friends of UMass Lowell Libraries is open to any interested individual. Dues are $25 per year. There is a discounted rate of $10 annually for students and senior citizens. Membership carries certain benefits such as:

- Borrowing privileges at Lydon and O'Leary Libraries
- Advance notification of Friends events
- Tax deductible membership dues
